

2015 Regional Finals – Poetry Out Loud

Students from over seventy schools across the Washington State are engaged this school year in exploring the amazing power and diversity of poetry, recited out loud. They will work in classrooms with teachers and fellow students, and top students at the classroom level will move on to a school wide recitation competition.

The winners from each of these schools advance to the next level of competition at the regional level, where they will recite with others from their area of the state. Below is the schedule for the 2015 Regional Finals.
