

Washington State Arts Commission Creative District Certification Application Guidelines (FY 2020)

About ArtsWA

Established in 1961, the Washington State Arts Commission (ArtsWA) is Washington State's arts agency. Its mission is to collaborate with and support artists, arts organizations and communities statewide to conserve, promote, and develop artistic resources. ArtsWA manages several programs that support this mission.

About Washington Certified Creative Districts Program

The Creative Districts Program works to help communities throughout the state thrive. Our certification can bolster their creative economy, enhance vitality, and improve livability. This can support a region's ability to grow jobs, and increase educational and cultural opportunities for residents and visitors.

In 2017, the Washington State legislature passed a bill to fund the Creative Districts program. The legislation tasked ArtsWA to create this program. The program works to promote and support economic development and placemaking opportunities in communities dedicated to growing their arts-related economic sectors.

The Creative Districts program is designed to help communities:

- Attract visitors, creative entrepreneurs and artists
- Grow jobs and economic opportunities for all citizens
- Improve the designated district area so that it's an appealing place to live, visit, and conduct business
- Empower designated districts to strengthen their economic presence through investments in staff, community partnerships and strategic planning
- Introduce new energy and innovation
- Set the stage to improve or redevelop historic assets
- Celebrate and strengthen a community's unique identity
- Find opportunities around all income housing, live/work, and maker space
- Develop their long-term future in a proactive and sustainable way

Creative Districts Defined

Districts go through a rigorous and fair planning and application process in order to become a Certified Washington Creative District. Potential Districts should:

- Encompass a contiguous geographic area
 - Be the site of a concentration of artistic, cultural or creative economy activities. 1 -2 primary arts or creative-economy industries should be identified.
 - Have a clearly defined, unique arts, culture or creative economy identity/brand
 - Be walkable and/or accessible, and attractive to locals and visitors alike
 - Actively promote local arts, culture, creative economy and tourist activities
 - Have unique resources that clearly contribute to the quality of life of the community
 - Include long-term cultural, economic and workforce development plans
 - Consider all income / affordable housing / maker space for creatives and artists living and working in the district to ensure their creative presence

- Create a strategic plan / business plan to guide the district forward once certified

Program Benefits and Opportunities

In addition to providing designation and official recognition by the State of Washington, the program provides support for Certified Creative districts. Benefits and opportunities include (but are not limited to):

Funding:

- Newly Certified Districts will receive a cash grant of $5,000 (one-to-one cash match required, match can include in-kind donation up to $2500 for smaller communities). Subject to availability.

Marketing

- Promotion of Creative Districts – sharing stories and successes with our audiences, both regionally and nationally
- In partnership with Washington State Department of Transportation (WSDOT), wayfinding signs will be placed on state highways in and/or near certified Creative Districts to complement a district's own signage efforts. (All signage must recognize the State Arts Commission's supportive role with agreed-upon language and / or logo).

Data and Impact Analysis

- Districts will compile and collect data that will enable ArtsWA to demonstrate the economic and quality of life impacts of creative districts. This will be used to help leverage more investment in Creative Districts, and will support districts locally in their efforts to obtain public sector, corporate, grant and foundation monies
- ArtsWA will contract with the Western States Arts Federation (WESTAF) to provide access to the Creative Vitality suite, an online platform for comprehensive creative economy data. ArtsWA will support districts in leveraging data to demonstrate impact and track progress
- ArtsWA will report annually on the collective impact of certified Creative Districts
- Individual districts will be required to file interim and year-end annual reports with ArtsWA

Funding to Support Economic Growth

- ArtsWA may provide flexible, technical and professional assistance to districts that have been certified for one or more years. These funds will be awarded for projects and activities that advance strategic goals, and may require a local match from the community.

All income /Affordable Housing for Creatives / Maker Space

- ArtsWA is researching real estate development tools to find possibilities to create affordable, appropriate places for artists to live and work in or near the districts. Districts and communities will be assisted in ways to support more stable, healthy communities anchored in existing assets.

Networking, Collaboration and Ongoing Technical Assistance

- ArtsWA will facilitate access to technical assistance for Districts as needed, and provide a learning and supportive community among Districts

Washington State Arts Commission Creative District Certification Application Guidelines (FY 2020)

Applicant Eligibility

Applicants for Washington Creative District Certification must be:

- A structured entity representing a community located in Washington State. Types of entities include: a municipal, county or tribal government, a designated downtown authority or economic development agency, a 501(c)3 or 501(c)6 or;
 - A structured entity representing an area formally recognized as a creative, arts or cultural district
- AND
- An organization with a minimum total $20,000 cash annual operating budget, or that can demonstrate the ability to effectively manage a district, handle grants and oversee other fiduciary responsibilities. This represents the organization's total budget, not necessarily its Creative District program budget.
 - If not a municipal entity, the organization must have approval from the local municipality to be the authorized agent of the Creative District.

Application Process

Prior to submitting an application, applicants should read the guidelines thoroughly and review all Community Readiness tools on the website.

Step 1: Review the Community Readiness Workbook and Pre-Application checklist to ensure community meets minimum requirements. If community meets these requirements, move to step 2.

Step 2: Submit a Letter of Interest (LOI) to the Washington Creative Districts Certification Program. A site visit of the potential district by Creative District program staff must be scheduled before Letter of Interest is submitted. If your planning team makes changes to the district boundary after this visit, but before you submit your letter of interest and/or application, you MUST schedule another site visit with our team.

Step 3: If Letter of Interest is approved, submit full application within 60 days of approval. Site visit must take place before full application is submitted.

Online Application submission

All applications must be submitted via ArtsWA's online application form, with all attending documents uploaded via this system. Applications will not be accepted in any other format, including via email or hard copy.

Step 1: Meet Minimum Requirements for Application

Communities interested in becoming a Washington Certified Creative District must meet the following minimum requirements:

REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

Certified Creative Districts will be required to submit periodic and year-end annual reports to ArtsWA. Failure to do this may make the District ineligible for further support. This may also jeopardize a District's certified status.

ArtsWA has the right to withhold, reduce or cancel funding and/or Certification status if an applicant fails to do the following:

- Adhere to deadlines for reporting
- Notify ArtsWA of changes in project collaborators or other significant management changes
- Comply with terms of any awards
- Demonstrate adequate financial management and oversight
- Properly credit ArtsWA's support
