TAB 5: UPLOAD ADDITIONAL MATERIALS

In addition to completing the online application form, you will need to upload support materials to your application. View this video for complete instructions on uploading files (NOTE: the video refers to "Document" tab which is our "Upload Additional Materials" tab; ALSO: the video refers to "linking a file" WE ONLY ACCEPT DOCUMENT UPLOADS. DO NOT USE THE 'LINK TO A FILE' FEATURE!).

1. REQUIRED: Your last-completed pre-pandemic year's operating budget. We do not need your actuals. We are asking for your budget simply to make sure you are applying to the right category of grant for small, mid-sized, or large organizations. We understand that 2020 brought dramatic changes to income and expenses as the year played out, and we want to get a picture of where you were financially before the pandemic.

   To be eligible for the Large Organizations grant, your pre-pandemic budgeted income must be over $350,000.

2. REQUIRED: Your most recently filed Form 990.

3. REQUIRED: Your IRS determination letter.

Welcome to your application for Pandemic Relief Grants for Large Organizations. Read the complete guidelines available in the "Library" tab of this application before proceeding.

On this page, tell us the amount of your grant request. You must request $1,500, $3,000 or $5,000.

Next complete Applicant and Organization Information. Information may pre-populate depending on your history using the ZoomGrants system. Update information as needed. Updates are global across the ZoomGrants system. You must enter your Federal Employer Identification Number (EIN) and your DUNS number. Both are required. Your DUNS number is nine digits listed in this format: 000000000 (no dashes). Getting a DUNS number

Collaborators are people, other than you, that you would like to extend editing privileges to and/or you would like cc'd on emails about this application (emails produced through ZoomGrants system only). Note that this is separate from identifying a specific contact for this grant. You will be asked for this on the next tab.

TIPS

Text: If you are cutting and pasting from a Word document, hidden formatting can add to the character count. If you are encountering word count problems, try typing directly into the text box instead of copy/paste.

Navigation and Saving: When you are ready to move to the next tab, you can use the "next" button at the bottom of the screen. You can also click directly on the tabs above to navigate between them in any order. This system will save your work as you go as long as you click outside the field where you are entering information. Watch for the flashing green "Saving" message.

ZoomGrants works best in Safari, Firefox, and Chrome. Internet Explorer is not recommended.

Enter your Organization Name.

ALL QUESTIONS IN THIS TAB MUST BE ANSWERED!

CHECK FOR UNANSWERED QUESTIONS BEFORE PROCEEDING.

Additional notes for Question 4 - County: if you list more than one county, we will use the first county listed.

What is an SWV number? Why is it necessary?
Washington Statewide Vendor (SWV) number allows the state of Washington to pay you—whether you are a business or individual contractor or grant recipient. To help you receive your funds quickly (should you get a grant) apply for an SWV number ahead of time. More information on getting your SWV number. If you have received payment from the State in the past – you likely already have a SWV number. You can check on the status of your SWV number by using the vendor number lookup or contacting: PayeeRegistration@ofm.wa.gov.

An SWV number is not required to apply but is to recieve funds should you get an grant.

Important: When you want to update/refresh a page, use the Refresh Page button in the upper right-hand area of the ZoomGrants page. Do not use your browser reload/refresh button. If you add new data, you may have to refresh to see your updates.

- Tell us how the pandemic has affected your group or organization's finances and programming.
- Tell us how you plan to use these grant dollars to move you forward. Be clear how grant funds will be used get to get you to "a next place."
- Tell us how you reach under-served and under-represented populations (see definitions below). Responses should describe inclusive practices in the areas of your organization or group's daily operations, participant demographics, and how your organization's work is reflective of Washington's diverse populations including cultural diversity, artistic disciplines, geographic locations, and underserved populations. Include any efforts to increase community access to the services your organization provides.
- Complete the fiscal sponsor section if you are using a fiscal sponsor. If you are not using a fiscal sponsor, enter N/A in all those boxes. This section must be completed by all.

Definitions:

"Underserved" means populations whose opportunities to experience the arts are limited by geography, historical exclusion and marginalization due to race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, economics, disability, or other social or institutionally imposed barriers. For this program we include veterans and active service members and their families; youth; people with low incomes; populations representative of cultures experiencing the most significant social inequities.

"Underrepresented" means any group or member(s) of a group that is not commonly represented as audience, artist, lead, presenter, contracted professional, or other type of participant in the work you do.

Participation of underserved populations in your narrative can include: leads, presenters, participants, and audiences. Include people of color, LGBTQ+ people, people who live in rural areas, people with disabilities, people who identify as immigrants or refugees, people whose first (or only) language is not English, and people most impacted by social/economic inequities.

1. Grant Contact - First Name, Last Name, Title, Email, and Phone Number
