* 15. What do you hope to get out of TAT Lab? Why are you drawn to this professional development opportunity at this time? In what areas do you hope to grow?

TAT Lab Core Application 2020-21

This section is about the R.I.S.E. (Representation, Inclusion, Service, Education) Award.

Purpose: Honor and support diverse arts education voices in Washington state. Build a dynamic cohort representative of the state's population.

Action: Through the Teaching Artists R.I.S.E. Award, TAT Lab will reserve at least four tuition-free spots for cohort members who represent identity groups who have been historically underrepresented in TAT Lab.

R.I.S.E. Award nominees should:

Identify as a member/representative of and/or work directly with one or more of these communities:

- Black Indigenous and People of Color communities
- LGBTQIA+ communities
- People with disabilities
- Multilingual or English Language Learner (ELL) communities
- Immigrant and refugee communities
- Rural communities
- Communities outside King and Pierce counties

And be recognized within their arts/education community as an important emerging voice.

If you would like to be considered for the TAT Lab Core R.I.S.E. Award, please tell us how you and your work are a good fit for this award:

16. The nomination deadline for the R.I.S.E. Award has passed.

TAT Lab Core Application 2020-21

* 17. TAT Lab works as a learning community; it is important to this model that all members of the cohort participate fully, which means attending all of the sessions as well as completing reading and lesson plan development assignments.

TAT Lab Core Program will be held in six sessions over Zoom, starting January 13 and running the first Wednesday of the month from February through June. An additional 1-3 hours per month of independent work will be required between scheduled sessions.

January 13, 4:00-7:00pm

February 3, 4:00-7:00pm

March 3, 4:00-7:00pm

April 7, 4:00-7:00pm

May 5, 4:00-7:00pm

June 2, 4:00-8:00pm

- I have reviewed the dates and times, and I feel confident that I would be able to commit to full participation.
- I have reviewed the dates and times, and have some possible schedule conflicts or other concerns about my ability to make my participation in TAT Lab a high priority.
- I have reviewed the dates and times, and cannot fully commit to them at this time. I am unable to make my participation in TAT Lab a high priority.

Please explain any possible conflicts or concerns.

* 18. Participant tuition for this program is $350. Tuition income and support from our funders help us offer tuition at a significant reduction to actual cost, sustain our programming, and pay presenters an adequate rate. TAT Lab also strives towards equity and we value participants regardless of their ability to pay.

In order to increase affordability, we offer a payment plan option, which you can request upon acceptance into TAT Lab.

We also offer scholarship assistance based on applicants' financial circumstances and our guidelines for application evaluation as outlined here, towards the bottom of the page.

Considering the value of this training for your work, and your ability to pay, would you require a scholarship in order to participate? Answering "yes" will NOT affect acceptance decisions.

- Yes
- No
- Maybe

To be considered for a full or partial scholarship, please answer the following questions.

19. Before the COVID-19 global pandemic, what was your combined annual household income from all sources?

20. How has the COVID 19 global pandemic affected your household income and/or expenses?

- Not much at all
- A little bit
- A significant amount
- A considerable amount
- In an extreme way

21. How many adults and children are members of your household?

	1	2	3	4	More than 4
Adults	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Children	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

* 22. Separate from program scholarships, arts and education organizations are encouraged to support professional development for their teaching artists and educators by covering a portion of TAT Lab tuition.

Is there an organization that might be able to support a portion of your tuition? Your response will not obligate the organization(s) at this time.

If Yes or Maybe, please reach out to your organization(s) and ask them to fill out the Organizational Support form, available here.

- Yes
- No
- Maybe

If you answered "Yes" or "Maybe" please list the name of organization(s):

Please submit one or two items that share more about who you are as a teaching artist and/or arts educator. We know there are many ways to share about your experience. Examples of an item you could choose to share include:

- a bio/resume
- a link to a video of you teaching
- a link to a video of you talking about your teaching experience
- a link to a website that shares about your work
- a sample learning plan
- photos/videos of student work created in your classes
- colleague or collaborator testimonial
- whatever you think would give us a sense of who you are and why TAT Lab would be a great fit for you!

The following types of files are supported: PDF, DOC, DOCX, PNG, JPG, JPEG, and GIF. If you have website, or a link to a video, you may save the link in a DOC file and upload it here.

If you are having technical difficulties, please email TATLab@PNB.org.

TAT Lab Core Application 2020-21

* 25. TAT Lab programs are brave spaces that invite all arts educators working in Washington state regardless of race or ethnicity, gender and gender expression, ability/disability, age, sexual orientation, religion, or any other identities to be their true selves.

As I enter this space with my unique mix of identities and privileges, I will respectfully engage in TAT Lab with the health and the growth of the community in mind.

26. TAT Lab requests, but does not require, applicants to let us know their race and/or ethnicity in order to hold ourselves accountable to serving teaching artists and arts educators of color.

Please use your own words to describe your race, ethnicity, heritage or cultural identity. (optional)

All Done!

Please hit the Submit button below to finalize your application.

TAT Lab has received a wealth of applications this year, and have selected a full cohort. We are happy to put you on the waiting list for this year. We'll also add you to the email list for more information about future opportunities with TAT Lab.

If you would like to have a copy of your responses, or if you have any questions, please email TATLab@PNB.org.

Thank you very much for your application!
