

ReVive Washington Grant Program

ArtsWA | Grants to Organizations | FY23 Guidelines

About this Grant

ArtsWA is pleased to offer art project support to groups and organizations that seek to provide arts programming to their community as members emerge from the social isolation of the pandemic.

This grant is open to non-profit and fiscally sponsored arts groups and arts organizations, local or tribal governments, non-profit organizations that do not have an arts mission, community service groups, cultural organizations, civic organizations, and libraries.

Projects produced as one-time, occasional, or annual events are eligible for funding. Organizations that produce multiple public programs can request support for a specific arts public program including professional development (workshop, conference, residency, etc.) Projects that bring arts experiences to the community quickly and safely, engage youth, seniors, and people living with disabilities, and offer opportunities for community members to teach art skills and lead public workshops, are of special interest.

FY23 ReVive Washington grants support project dates between July 1, 2022 and June 30, 2023. Funded projects must be accessible to the public and take place in Washington State.

How does ArtsWA Select Recipients?

Screening for Eligibility

- ArtsWA Staff screen applications to ensure eligibility requirements are met.

Evaluation and Application Scoring Panel

- A panel of arts professionals, ArtsWA commissioners, and staff review applications alongside other applications in the same category.

Panel Recommendations and Board Approval

- The panel scores applications online and in person (if possible, during the pandemic) and makes funding recommendations.
- Recommendations go to the ArtsWA Board of Commissioners for approval.

Notification of Award

- Once approved by the board, notifications will be sent to applicants.

What are the Criteria Used to Score Applications?

Review Criteria are standards used to score applications. Strong applications will demonstrate strengths in:

Value (40 points)

Provides opportunity for community to participate in the arts; provides arts experiences and creative activities that are safe and offer relief from social isolation during the pandemic.

Public Benefit (30 points)

Project offers significant public access through strategic and meaningful outreach and project delivery including outreach to underserved* populations, accessibility for people with disabilities, and to populations representative of cultures experiencing significant social inequities especially during the pandemic.

"Underserved" means populations whose opportunities to experience the arts are limited by geography, historical exclusion, and marginalization due to race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, economics, disability, or other social or institutionally imposed barriers.*

Management (30 points)

Project proposal describes capacity to deliver project effectively; reflects relevant expertise (contracted or internal); includes a budget appropriate to project; includes minimum of two past similar and/or relevant events produced by applicant organization; will deliver one or more accessible public event(s) in Washington State.
