

WHAT WE DO AND DON'T FUND

ArtsWA – ReNew

ReNew grant funds are meant to support art and culture projects by small groups. The following are some things that ArtsWA funding does not support.

What We Don't Fund

Certain types of activities at schools, colleges, universities.

- Events, activities, projects, or performances that are part of, or involve, academic or course credit
- Tuition assistance for college, university or other formal course of study that generates course credit
- Events that take place on campus that are not easily accessible by the general public and primarily attended by matriculated students

Individuals

- Grants to individuals
- Expenses for an individual to attend contests, conferences, seminars or workshops
- Grants to students
- Student scholarships
- Payments to individual board members of the applicant, unless made in compliance with Internal Revenue Service 501(c)(3) regulations that limit such payments to professional services

Regranting

- Funds cannot be used for regranting to individuals or organizations.
- Funds cannot be used for regranting as scholarships.

Certain types of projects or programs conducted by other state agencies.

- State agency programs or projects that receive state appropriations for the same project.

Private purpose and restricted events.

- Events that are not open to the public
- Activities primarily benefiting the organization membership
- Activities financed by artist entry fees, particularly those involving cash prizes
- Events not commonly recognized as a general public event, are an integral part of a specific religion, or promote a religious observance
- Conferences benefiting a small group of people
- Hospitality expenses such as food, flowers, receptions and similar items
- Fund-raisers or benefit concerts

Certain types of capital expenses.

- Renovation, remodeling, restoration, or new construction of buildings
- Purchase of permanent equipment or real property, including public art installations

Certain types of general expenses and deficits.

- Activities or expenses outside the current grant period
- Activities that have occurred prior to the period designated by the contract
- Requests to cover previous losses incurred by the organization

Out-of-state travel

- Grants cannot be used to fund travel outside Washington.
