TAT Lab Core Program Application 2022-23

Professional Development for Teaching Artists of all Artistic Disciplines

Welcome to the online application for the TAT Lab Core Program! This professional development program runs from December 2022 through May 2023.

Curious about what this application entails? Find a PDF of all the application questions, as well as more information, at: <https://www.arts.wa.gov/tat-lab/>

TAT Lab Core Program participants join a statewide community of arts educators to explore learning plan design, frameworks, and new teaching methods in this 6-month program. TAT Lab is for people who work at the intersections of Arts x Youth x Education, focusing on community building, creative thinking, racial justice, and social emotional wellness for both students and educators.

Before beginning this application, we invite you to review the TAT Lab Calendar, Purpose Statement and Program Learning Goals.

This section is about the R.I.S.E. (Representation, Inclusion, Service, Education) Award.

Purpose: Honor and support diverse arts education voices in Washington State. Build a dynamic cohort representative of the state's population.

Action: Through the Teaching Artists R.I.S.E. Award, TAT Lab will reserve at least four tuition-free spots for cohort members who represent identity groups who have been historically underrepresented in TAT Lab.

R.I.S.E. Award nominees should:

Identify as a member of and/or work directly with one or more of these communities:

- Black, Indigenous, and People of Color communities
- LGBTQIA+ communities
- People with disabilities
- Multilingual or English Language Learner (ELL) communities
- Immigrant and refugee communities
- Rural communities
- Communities outside King and Pierce counties

And be recognized within their arts/education community as an important emerging voice.

16. If you would like to be considered for the TAT Lab Core R.I.S.E. Award, please tell us how you and your work are a good fit for this award. Please tell us about yourself, and your teaching. How do you empower youth and children through arts learning? How do you engage communities through your work?

* 18. Participant tuition for this program is $500. Tuition income and support from our funders help us offer tuition at a significant reduction to actual cost, sustain our programming, and pay presenters an adequate rate. TAT Lab also strives towards equity and we value participants regardless of their ability to pay.

In order to increase affordability, we offer a payment plan option, which you can request upon acceptance into TAT Lab.

We also offer scholarship assistance based on applicants' financial circumstances and our guidelines for application evaluation as outlined here: <https://www.arts.wa.gov/tat-lab-core-program/>

Considering the value of this training for your work, and your ability to pay, would you require a scholarship in order to participate? Answering "yes" will NOT affect acceptance decisions.

TAT Lab Core Program Application 2022-23

So TAT Lab can get to know you better, please submit two items.

1. a detailed bio, or a resume, or a CV that is focused on your work in arts education.
2. The other item should share more about who you are as a teaching artist and/or arts educator. We know there are many ways to share about your experience. Examples of an item you could choose to share include:
  - a sample learning plan
  - a link to a video of you teaching and/or talking about your teaching experience
  - a link to a website that shares about your work in arts education
  - photos/videos of student work created in your classes with a detailed description of the activity and class setting
  - colleague or collaborator testimonial
  - whatever you think would give us a sense of who you are and why TAT Lab would be a great fit for you!

The following types of files are supported: PDF, DOC, DOCX, PNG, JPG, JPEG, and GIF. If you have website, or a link to a video, you may save the link in a DOC file and upload it here.

If you are having technical difficulties, please email TATLab@PNB.org.

* 22. Upload your detailed bio / resume / CV that is focused on your work in arts education here.

* 25. Some TAT Lab events may be recorded for grant reporting and/or promotional materials via screenshot or video. TAT Lab staff will always announce any recording and provide opportunities to opt out (turn off/hide video) prior to recording. Having your video/camera/voice on signifies your permission to use your image for TAT Lab communications.

I understand.

* 26. TAT Lab programs are courageous spaces that invite all arts educators working in Washington state regardless of race or ethnicity, gender and gender expression, ability/disability, age, sexual orientation, religion, or any other identities to be their true selves.

As I enter this space with my unique mix of identities and privileges, I will respectfully engage in TAT Lab with the health and the growth of the community in mind.

27. TAT Lab requests, but does not require, applicants to let us know their race and/or ethnicity in order to hold ourselves accountable to serving teaching artists and arts educators of color.

Please use your own words to describe your race, ethnicity, heritage or cultural identity.
(optional)

28. If accepted in TAT Lab Core Program, I would be interested in free Clock Hours from OSPI.

- Yes
- No
- I'm not sure.

Please hit the Submit button below to finalize your application.

If you would like to have a copy of your responses, or if you have any questions, please email TATLab@PNB.org.

Thank you very much for your application!
